GASTHOF

A photograph of a man and a woman in a modern lounge setting. The man is sitting on a light-colored sofa, playing an acoustic guitar. The woman is lying back on the same sofa, looking up and smiling. They are positioned in front of a large floor-to-ceiling window that offers a panoramic view of a city skyline across a body of water. The room is furnished with a low, round wooden coffee table holding drinks and snacks, and a green velvet ottoman in the foreground. A potted plant is visible on the right side of the frame.
